MUR No.

Decor Services, LLC 2711 Centerville Road Suite 400 Wilmington, DE 19808

John Doe, Jane Doe and other persons who created and operated Decor Services, LLC and made contributions to America Leads in the name of Decor Services, LLC

COMPLAINT

1. This complaint is filed pursuant to 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1) and is based on information and belief that Decor Services, LLC and any person(s) who created, operated and made contributions to or in the name of Decor Services, LLC (John Doe, Jane Doe and other persons) may have violated provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act ("FECA"), 52 U.S.C. § 30101, et seq.

- 2. Specifically, based on published reports, complainants have reason to believe that the person(s) who created, operated and/or contributed to Decor Services, LLC may have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a contribution to the political committee America Leads (I.D. C00573055) in the name of another person, namely Decor Services, LLC, and that Decor Services, LLC may have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly permitting its name to be used for the making of such contribution.
- 3. Further, based on published reports, complainants have reason to believe that Decor Services, LLC and the person(s) who created and operated Decor Services, LLC may have violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30102, 30103 and 30104 by failing to organize Decor Services, LLC as a political committee, as defined at 52 U.S.C. § 30101(4), register the political committee and file disclosure reports as a political committee.
- 4. "If the Commission, upon receiving a complaint . . . has reason to believe that a person has committed, or is about to commit, a violation of [the FECA] . . . [t]he Commission shall make an investigation of such alleged violation . . . ." 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(2); see also 11 C.F.R. § 111.4(a) (emphasis added).

BACKGROUND

- 5. The Center for Public Integrity reported earlier this month: "[A] company called Decor Services LLC, which materialized Jan. 12, contributed $250,000 to the pro-Chris Christie Super PAC America Leads" just 16 days after the LLC's formation.
- Corporation Service Company, located at 2711 Centerville Road, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19808, is the registered agent of Decor Services, LLC.<sup>2</sup>

Dave Leventhal, Michael Beckel & Carrie Levine, Numbers to know about the 2016 presidential race, CENTER FOR PUBLIC INTEGRITY, February 21, 2016 available at http://www.publicintegrity.org/2016/02/21/19339/numbers-know-about-2016-presidential-race.

- 7. The political committee named in the Center for Public Integrity article is America

  Leads, which reported receiving a $250,000 contribution from Decor Services, LLC with the same Delaware address as the Corporation Service Company, on its monthly report filed with the Commission on February 19, 2016.

- 8. The name of the principals of Decor Services, LLC are not publicly available.<sup>3</sup>

PROHIBITION ON CONTRIBUTIONS IN THE NAME OF ANOTHER

- 9. FECA provides that "[n]o person shall make a contribution in the name of another person or knowingly permit his name to be used to effect such a contribution and no person shall knowingly accept a contribution made by one person in the name of another person."

  52 U.S.C. § 30122.
- 10. The Commission regulation implementing the statutory prohibition on "contributions in the name of another" provides the following examples of "contributions in the name of another":
  - "Giving money or anything of value, all or part of which was provided to the contributor by another person (the true contributor) without disclosing the source of money or the thing of value to the recipient candidate or committee at the time the contribution is made," 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(2)(i).
  - "Making a contribution of money or anything of value and attributing as the source of the money or thing of value another person when in fact the contributor is the source," 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(2)(ii).

See Delaware Division of Corporations website database, available at https://icis.corp.delaware.gov/Ecorp/EntitySearch/NameSearch.aspx.

Id. ("The only name connected to Decor Services LLC in public records is the Wilmington-based Corporation Service Company, a firm that serves as a registered agent for thousands of corporate entities.").

- Based on published reports, complainants have reason to believe that Decor Services, LLC may have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by "[g]iving money . . . , all or part of which was provided to" Decor Services, LLC by the person(s) who created, operated and/or contributed to Decor Services, LLC (i.e., the true contributor(s)) without disclosing the source of money to America Leads at the time the contribution was made. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(2)(i).

- 12. Based on published reports, complainants have reason to believe that the person(s) who created, operated and/or contributed to Decor Services, LLC may have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by "[m]aking a contribution of money . . . and attributing as the source of the money . . . another person [namely, Decor Services, LLC] when in fact [the person(s) who created, operated and/or contributed to Decor Services, LLC was] the source." See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(2)(ii).
- 13. Based on published reports, complainants have reason to believe that Decor Services,

  LLC may have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by "knowingly permit[ting its] name to be used to effect such a contribution." 52 U.S.C. § 30122.

POLITICAL COMMITTEE STATUS, REGISTRATION AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

14. FECA defines the term "political committee" to mean "any committee, club, association or other group of persons which receives contributions aggregating in excess of $1,000 during a calendar year or which makes expenditures aggregating in excess of $1,000 during a calendar year." 52 U.S.C. § 30101(4)(A); see also 11 C.F.R. § 100.5(a). "Contribution," in turn, is defined as "any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office[.]" 52 U.S.C. § 30101(8)(A)(i). Similarly, "expenditure" is defined as "any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office[.]" 52 U.S.C. § 30101(9)(A)(i).

- 15. In Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), the Supreme Court construed the term "political committee" to "only encompass organizations that are under the control of a candidate or the major purpose of which is the nomination or election of a candidate." Id. at 79 (emphasis added). Again, in FEC v. Massachusetts Citizens for Life, 479 U.S. 238 (1986), the Court invoked the "major purpose" test and noted, in the context of analyzing the activities of a 501(c)(4) group, that if a group's independent spending activities "become so extensive that the organization's major purpose may be regarded as campaign activity, the corporation would be classified as a political committee." Id. at 262 (emphasis added). In that instance, the Court continued, it would become subject to the "obligations and restrictions applicable to those groups whose primary objective is to influence political campaigns." Id. (emphasis added). The Court in McConnell v. FEC, 540 U.S. 93 (2003), restated the "major purpose" test for political committee status as iterated in Buckley. Id. at 170 n.64.
- 16. The Commission has explained:

[D]etermining political committee status under FECA, as modified by the Supreme Court, requires an analysis of both an organization's specific conduct—whether it received $1,000 in contributions or made $1,000 in expenditures—as well as its overall conduct—whether its major purpose is Federal campaign activity (i.e., the nomination or election of a Federal candidate).

Supplemental Explanation and Justification on Political Committee Status, 72 Fed. Reg. 5595, 5597 (Feb. 7, 2007).

- 17. For the reasons set forth above, there is a two prong test for "political committee" status under federal law: (1) whether an entity or other group of persons has a "major purpose" of influencing the "nomination or election of a candidate," as stated by Buckley, and if so, (2) whether the entity or other group of persons receives "contributions" or makes "expenditures" of $1,000 or more in a calendar year.
- 18. Any entity that meets the definition of a "political committee" must file a "statement of organization" with the Federal Election Commission, 52 U.S.C. § 30103, must comply with the organizational and recordkeeping requirements of 52 U.S.C. § 30102, and must file periodic disclosure reports of its receipts and disbursements, 52 U.S.C. § 30104.
- The political committee disclosure reports required by FECA must disclose to the Commission and the public, including complainants, comprehensive information regarding such committee's financial activities, including the identity of any donor who has contributed $200 or more to the committee within the calendar year. See 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b). The Supreme Court has repeatedly recognized the importance of campaign finance disclosure to informing the electorate. See, e.g., Citizens United v. FEC, 558 U.S. 310, 369 (2010) ("[T]he public has an interest in knowing who is speaking about a candidate shortly before an election.").
- 20. Based on published reports, complainants have reason to believe that Decor Services,

  LLC may have met the two-prong test for political committee status by (1) being an entity or group of persons with the "major purpose" of influencing the "nomination or

In addition, a "political committee" that does not confine its activities to "independent expenditures" is subject to contribution limits, 52 U.S.C. §§ 30116(a)(1), 30116(a)(2), and source prohibitions, 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a), on the contributions it may receive. 52 U.S.C. § 30116 (f); see also FEC Ad. Op. 2010-11at 2 (Commonsense Ten) (A committee that "intends to make only independent expenditures" and "will not make any monetary or in-kind contributions (including coordinated communications) to any other political committee or organization" is not subject to contribution limits.)

election of a candidate" and (2) by receiving "contributions" of $1,000 or more in a calendar year. Consequently, complainants have reason to believe that Decor Services, LLC and the person(s) who created and operated Decor Services, LLC may have violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30102, 30103 and 30104 by failing to organize Decor Services, LLC as a political committee, as defined at 52 U.S.C. § 30101(4), register the political committee and file disclosure reports as a political committee.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, the Commission should find reason to believe that Decor Services, LLC and the person(s) who created, operated and/or contributed to Decor Services, LLC have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30101 et seq., including 52 U.S.C. §§ 30102, 30103, 30104 and 30122 and conduct an immediate investigation under 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(2). Further, the Commission should determine and impose appropriate sanctions for any and all violations, should enjoin the respondents from any and all violations in the future, and should impose such additional remedies as are necessary and appropriate to ensure compliance with the FECA.

March 2, 2016

See Massachusetts Citizens for Life, 479 U.S. at 262 (If a group's political activities "become so extensive that the organization's major purpose may be regarded as campaign activity, the corporation would be classified as a political committee.")
